Letter from Julie

Happy Spring.... we have finally made it, I hope. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for helping us achieve a successful bouquet flower sale this year. It is because of your generous support, as well as the support of our volunteers, staff, and board members that we are able to support our mission.

It has been approximately three months since I started in the role of CEO for Supportive Care of Orleans - Hospice, and I am truly blessed to be here and to work alongside a wonderful group of individuals. I am stepping into the role of CEO following Elisa Chambery's retirement. The hard working and dedicated staff have welcomed me with open arms and have been bringing me up to date on our operations. The staff are the most compassionate, caring, and kind individuals I have ever met.

In this short amount of time, I have seen firsthand how our Supportive Care of Orleans- Hospice team provides a compassionate approach to end-of life care. We support our mission with dedicated, Hospice trained, professionals who provide comfort focused medical care, emotional and spiritual guidance for patients and their families. Supportive Care of Orleans-Hospice, provides support and care for our hospice patients, families, and community their homes or in our beautiful Martin-Linsen Residence. End-of -life care can be a beautiful journey focused on quality of life and symptom/pain management.

We thank you for your continued generous support and for the privilege of supporting the Hospice Mission in the community. We are here to care for you and/or your loved one and to provide hospice through comfort, compassion, and expertise.

Thank you for letting us make a difference one life at a time.

I have an open-door policy and I look forward to meeting and working with the community, patients, and families. Please don't ever hesitate to contact me.

Warm Regards,

Julie Kumiega

THANK YOU for helping us support our neighbors in need here in Orleans County.

Supportive Care of Orleans met with recipients of their three annual awards during National Volunteer Week.

The Business and Civic Award was given to the Orleans County Office for the Aging (OFA) for their outstanding dedication and support to Supportive Care of Orleans (SCO).

“The Office for the Aging staff are an invaluable resource to Supportive Care,” Chris Fancher, social worker and volunteer coordinator said. “The staff provides vital services which allow seniors to remain in their homes, living life as fully and independently as possible. They are dedicated partners in caring for seniors throughout our community.”

Members of our Supportive Care social work team reach out to Office for the Aging staff on a weekly basis to coordinate care for our patients. OFA staff always responds in a prompt, friendly, professional manner and we appreciate all their work, time, and expertise.

“Our goal is to embrace those facing advanced illness with optimal levels of comfort, compassion and expertise and working with the Office for the Aging makes that easy,” Julie Kumiega, Supportive Care CEO said.

Beverly Saskowski was presented with the Mary Janet Sahukar Award for her outstanding dedication and commitment to Supportive Care of Orleans.

As a retired IBM executive, Saskowski currently serves on several Supportive Care committees offering her expertise and recently worked closely with our staff on the technical side of things. Additionally, she serves meals in the Martin-Linsen Residence, dedicates her time to our patients and their families as a family support volunteer, and participates in every event we have.

“Saskowski’s contribution to Supportive Care has been immeasurable,” Fancher said. “From serving on our board of directors to stepping up and acting as interim CEO, Saskowski consistently goes above and beyond, dedicating her time and energy to ensuring our neighbors in hospice are well taken care of.”

“Supportive Care of Orleans wouldn’t be where it is today without Bev’s guidance,” Kumiega said. “She has overseen and been involved in almost every aspect of the organization and is an invaluable resource to us. We are lucky to have her support.”

Carol Culhane was presented with our Volunteer of the Year Award for her hard work and dedication to Supportive Care of Orleans.

“Carol has been a friend of Supportive Care of Orleans,” Fancher said as she presented Culhane with her award. “Not just this year, but for many, many years.”

A decade ago, back in 2012, as the workers were building the Martin-Linsen Residence, Carol was in the middle of the construction site creating and hand painting the mural depicting the seasons of life, winter, spring, summer, and fall, in what is now the family meeting room. The project involved well over 200 hours of work, and she worked tirelessly as the commotion of construction surrounded her.

“Her kindness is a staple here at Supportive Care,” Kumiega said. “She has made a lasting impression on the entire organization; we are incredibly grateful for her continued involvement ensuring that our residence feels like a home.”

For the last 24 years, Culhane has supported Supportive Care of Orleans by donating ornaments she has hand painted and personalized for members of the community as part of our annual Light-a-Life event.

“This labor of love involves hundreds of hours, and she absolutely out does herself every year,” Fancher explained.

Recently, Culhane has agreed to paint another mural in the Martin-Linsen residence. This one will adorn the walls of our spa room, making the space inviting, inspiring, and fun for our patients.

“I am so honored to work with someone who’s been supporting hospice since the beginning,” Kumiega said. “Carol is an inspiring individual and we are thrilled to be partnering with her on another project.”

Supportive Care of Orleans extends our thanks to all our incredible volunteers and is currently welcoming new volunteers in all areas of service.

Ann McElwee

Ann helps our residents by serving them meals, acting as a respite volunteer, and special event volunteer.

“Ann has been a phenomenal volunteer for several years,” Volunteer Coordinator Chris Fancher said. “Ann is a retired teacher as well as a braille transcriber and is also an active Medina Lions Club member and Orleans Digital Literacy Initiative mentor.

“I knew that when I retired, I wanted to give back to Hospice. They gave me what I needed, and I wanted to give others the same peace of mind,” McElwee said.

Anne said her first experience with Hospice of Orleans was when her friend Cosmo became terminally ill.

“Hospice was a Godsend to Cosmo and me,” McElwee said. “Through the dedicated work of the nurse and the home health care aid, Cosmo was able to remain in our home. I continued working, knowing that he was safe and receiving excellent care.”

“I have loved working in the Martin-Linsin residence,” McElwee said.

“When I am there, I feel a sense of peace, love, and caring. I feel a sense of accomplishment when I visit someone in their home. I feel honored and blessed that they trust me with their loved ones.”
